British Will Not Keep Chinese Integrity Without U.S. Help

Foreign Secretary Says Government Will Not Participate Against Japan or Any Other Power Without Cooperation—Never Signed a Treaty.

London, May 18 (AP)—Sir John Simon, British foreign secretary, declared today that Great Britain is not pledged to "preserve" the integrity of China and will not participate in direct sanctions against Japan or any other power in other parts of the world unless the United States gives its full cooperation.

Reaffirming Great Britain's determination to "respect" China's political integrity, Sir John asserted: "Great Britain has never signed any treaty to preserve the territorial integrity of China."

Referring to the demands of some of the opposition that Great Britain embark on a policy of economic sanctions in an effort to forestall any war, the foreign secretary declared: "Economic sanctions cannot be applied without the risk of war, and we cannot undertake any system of sanctions or effective action of this type unless the United States cooperates."

Simon extensively praised the United States aid to the League of Nations "which I hereby gratefully and publicly recognize," he said.

The House of Commons, he declared, "must understand, however, the limitations under which the United States is likely to act."

He intimated that Great Britain was willing to participate in an international policy of sanctions (that is, reprisals against treaty violations) in specific cases should the United States as well as other nations agree to it formally.

"Nevertheless," said Sir John, "it must be recognized that a policy of sanctions cannot be set up like a bottle of medicine for dosage where and when it is needed."

"This is a matter necessitating the full review of each individual case, and before action by any power of this nature is taken, all interested must formally agree."

Simon reaffirmed Great Britain's desire to reach an agreement at Geneva on disarmament and said Great Britain already has set an example in the reduction of arms and now it is up to other nations to follow suit.

DRIVE SUCCESSFUL TO STOP LIQUOR LAW LEAKS

Albany, May 18—The drive to plug leaks in the New York State Alcoholic Beverage Tax Law is proving successful.

Louis H. Fuess, director of the Beverage Tax Bureau, revealed today that efforts of the combined field forces of the Department of Taxation and Finance have uncovered several hundred delinquents during the first two days of the campaign.

The investigators are centering their attention on retail stores, restaurants, hotels and others who are importing beverages directly from other states or foreign countries, thereby evading the tax.

"We expect to collect from every one of these sources," Mr. Fuess emphasized. "In the eyes of the law these retailers, by buying in other states or countries, become distributors, and are consequently subject to the tax."

Mr. Fuess revealed that he has had several investigators quietly at work in the New York area for the past three weeks in an attempt to determine just how widespread the tax evasion really is.

"These men have already collected more than $50,000," he declared. "And we therefore believe that our intensive statewide campaign will substantially enrich the state's treasury."

ELEVENTH TOWN CLERK HAD AUTO ACCIDENT

Town Clerk Townsend Fitzgerald of Ellenville had his first automobile accident in 20 years Wednesday, when his Pontiac ran into a truck near Bullville. Mrs. Fitzgerald received a severely injured ankle and the car badly damaged. The accident happened when a truck turned around by a mill and came back into the road ahead of Mr. Fitzgerald.

Those who were going on between a head-on collision with the parked car or crashing into the rear end of the truck and chose the latter.

FINNISH SERVANT GETS 15-YEAR PRISON TERM

Vasa, Finland, May 18 (AP)—Jenny Anttila, a young servant girl, today was found guilty by the Court of Appeal of poisoning Lieut. Col. Walter Asplund of the Finnish army. She was sentenced to 15 years in prison for the slaying.

Asplund was director of the munition plant and the state considered that Jenny was the tool of an espionage ring.

Treasury Receipts

Washington, May 18 (AP)—The position of the treasury May 16: Receipts, $119,919,473.45; expenditures, $90,387,126.12; balance, $29,532,347.33. Customs receipts for the month, $10,895,122.47. Receipts for the fiscal year (since July 1), $2,443,889,651.59; expenditures, $2,461,525,661.30 (including $3,427,325,886.16 of emergency expenditures); excess of receipts, $2,517,675,692.71. Gold assets, $7,752,559,949.27.

Convention Group Organized With Judge Culloton Chairman

Eleven Men Respond to Invitation Issued to Meet at Municipal Auditorium to Form Committee to Induce Conventions to Meet in Kingston—Committees Appointed.

Judge Bernard A. Culloton was elected general chairman of the city convention committee with Mayor C. J. Heiselman as honorary chairman. At a meeting called at the Municipal Auditorium on Thursday afternoon, Secretary Ward Tongue of the Industrial and Convention Committee, recently appointed by Mayor Heiselman, had sent out 42 invitations to hotel, restaurant and transportation men of the city to meet and discuss plans for organizing a committee seeking to have Kingston made a convention city, and of that number but 10 men attended the meeting.

Those who had accepted the invitation to attend the meeting were: Secretary Clarence Schoonmaker of the Y. M. C. A., G. N. Wood of the New York Central Railroad, William C. Kingman of the Canfield Supply Company, George Hilson of the Stuyvesant Hotel, R. R. Gross of the Governor Clinton Hotel, John J. Egan of the Kirkland Hotel, John Janakis of the Sea Grill Restaurant, George Whitaker of the Kingston City Transportation Company, Judge Bernard A. Culloton, Herbert H. Simonetti and Chief of Police J. Allan Wood. Alderman Paul Zucca of the building committee of the common council was also present when the meeting was called to order by Mayor Heiselman, who said that the purpose was to organize a convention committee and get in contact with various organizations who held conventions to induce them to hold their meetings in Kingston. He said that it might be possible to have the state convention in Kingston. Mayor Heiselman, owing to another appointment, was unable to remain for the entire meeting, and Judge Culloton was selected as chairman of the meeting. Before the meeting adjourned Judge Culloton was elected general chairman with power to appoint a general convention committee, a finance committee, publicity and rooming committee.

It was decided to have a booklet printed calling attention to the city as a convention city. Judge Culloton said that those he appointed on committees would be notified by Monday, and that another meeting would be held on June 1.

The following committees were appointed to serve: General convention committee—Mayor C. J. Heiselman, honorary chairman; Bernard A. Culloton, permanent chairman; R. R. Gross, Paul Zucca, John J. Egan, J. Allan Wood, W. C. Kingman, John Janakis, Clarence Schoonmaker, E. Frank Flanagan, William O'Reilly, Harry Kaplan, A. H. Chambers, Vincent Gorman, John Matthews, George Thilson, George Whitaker.

Finance Committee—W. C. Kingman, chairman; E. Frank Flanagan, John Matthews, John Egan, G. N. Wood, A. H. Chambers, John Janakis.

Publicity Committee—R. R. Gross, chairman; Arthur Colligan, Paul Zucca, William O'Reilly, V. A. Gorman, Nathan Markson, Robert Hancock.

Rooming Committee—George Hilson, chairman; C. S. Schoonmaker, Harry Kaplan, William Turk, E. E. Fessenden, George Whitaker.

Superintendent James Norton of the board of public works sent a crew of men to Albany today and they returned to Kingston with two of the three new ash trucks recently ordered by the board. The third will be ready for delivery shortly. The new trucks are Ford chassis with a Collecto body installed on each truck and will replace the present horse-drawn ash rigs.

Elwood Finkle of 235 Clifton avenue, Henry Kelsch of 86 Hone street and Walter Lutz of 18 Hone street, will drive the new trucks. They are all married men with families, and are qualified chauffeurs with experience in driving trucks. The other men who will work with them on the ash collections will be taken from the present crew of ash collectors, and the remaining crew on the ash collections will be transferred to the street department so that no man will lose his job by reason of placing the trucks in operation.

The two new trucks will be placed in operation here on Monday.

"Gypsy Jim" at the High School Tonight

"Gypsy Jim," the Knights of Columbus play, to be presented this evening at the Kingston High School Auditorium, has reached a mid-season smoothness, it is reported.

With a startling portrayal, Henry Osterhout brings to the stage a real Gypsy. He puts the light touch to mouthings of real philosophy, as a happy, roving nomad should. The Blake family is a true American household. Janet Evans, Marion Farrell, William Martin, Jr., and Philip McDonald form this well-illustrated home circle. The Gypsy's two friends are done convincingly by Walter Donnarumma and William Joyce.

As professional stage-folk, Winifred McCutcheon and William Scully show by their playing that they know how to handle such hard roles. Ray Garraghan cleverly enacts the villain, Isabel Byrne, as the little girl, Grace, plays upon the heart strings of the audience. As Jennings, Frank Reis, who has many stage roles to his credit, brings the true touch to a wealthy home.

Seldom have the play lovers of Kingston been offered such a worthy story handled so finely by an amateur cast, says Miss Marion Byrne, director of this production. Grand Knight Robert Donnarumma, enthused by last night's performance, promises everyone a real treat and the council has set its hall in shape for dancing, to follow the play.

Special Election

A special election will be held in Ellenville May 23, to decide whether the village shall bond for $25,000 to pay for cost of repairs to the effluent water system. If the bonds are authorized they will be paid off ultimately by the Water Board.

Idealism, Loyalty And Suicide by Hanging Is Civic Virtue Stressed Coroner's Verdict on At Hose Co. Banquet Union Center Farmer

Wiltwyck Hose Company Hears Major Heiselman, Attorney John M. Cashin, Former Mayor Kraft, James Bertr, Fire Chief Murphy, H. B. Walker, J. Charles Snyder, George Beckman, Commissioner Edward Moran.

Wiltwyck Hose Company's first annual banquet Thursday night at the Sea Grill Restaurant, was attended by more than 50 members and guests who enjoyed a steak dinner and listened with pleasure to speeches by veteran firemen and guest speakers, the featured one of whom was John M. Cashin, Kingston and New York attorney, who praised the old time volunteers and their spirit.

"The old time volunteer firemen had something we haven't got," said Attorney Cashin. "They had idealism, a sense of loyalty, civic virtue and a community pride which we of this younger generation lack. If there is ever a time when we need such spirit, it is today."

Picturing the old timers drawing their hose carts by hand, Mr. Cashin said "once more get hold of that rope and pull in unison and with spirit, with your heads high and your hearts open, knowing that you are doing your bit. If it hadn't been for these old volunteer departments," said the speaker noting the advances made in firefighting, "there would have been no Kingston today. They had idealism, loyalty, civic pride and virtue. We of the younger element lack these fine qualities."

"The mayor of your city, sitting on my left, I know is trying to do his utmost to promote the civic welfare of this city. He is, however, powerless without the support of such an organization as yours. He needs the support of your organization as well as that of every organization in the city and he is entitled to it. You are faced with a test today and it is up to you men, especially you younger men, as to whether or not you are going to sit back and let others do the work, or whether or not you are going to become possessed of this civic pride and virtue and get out and do your part."

You owe it to yourselves, to your organization and to the state and nation to try to do something constructive to back up the efforts of recognized officials.

John E. Kraft, one of the oldest members of Wiltwyck Hose Company, and who was mayor of Kingston 14 years ago, spoke of the company and how far back it went in getting its name, when he was introduced by Charles E. Mullen, president of Wiltwyck, who acted as toastmaster.

Mr. Kraft told the story of the old stockade built by the Dutch around the area taking in Green street, Main and North Front and Clinton avenue, and which was named Wiltwyck. It was from this that the hose company derived its name, being located in that section. The speaker also explained some of the old methods of firefighting when Kingston and Rondout were two separate villages.

Having joined Wiltwyck 50 years ago, Mr. Kraft was qualified to speak of the progress of the volunteer unit. At the end of his speech he urged its members to perpetuate the name of Wiltwyck.

Other speakers were Mayor Conrad J. Heiselman, James H. Bertr, former chairman of Wiltwyck; Fire Chief Joseph L. Murphy; former mayor and ex-fire commissioner Harry B. Walker; Commissioner Edward Moran; George Beckman and J. Charles Snyder, two of the oldest members of the company. Others seated at the speakers' table were W. C. Bell, C. T. Bennett, Street Superintendent Norton, Alderman Eugene Cornwell, Edward Ryan, president of Treadskill Hose, Deputy Chief Fred Leverich, Rudolph Reylea.

In his talk Mayor Heiselman lauded the fire department and Chief Murphy, whom he characterized as an efficient head. Speaking when it came his turn, Chief Murphy thanked the mayor for his appreciation of the work of the fire department and laid the efficiency to the cooperation of Deputy Leverich and the whole personnel of the paid department and the volunteers.

P. W. GOLDMAN ELECTED TO DRAMATIC GROUP

Rhine, May 15—At a meeting just held of the Cornell University Dramatic Club 24 active and 39 associate members were elected to the club, and officers for the coming year were elected.

Philip W. Goldman, 36 of 24 Broadway, Kingston, was elected to associate membership in the club on the basis of his acting.

Conclude Hearings On Code For The Telegraph Industry

Postal Counsel Says Proposed Commission Could Not Work Fast Enough To Give The Necessary Relief And That Congress Could Not Legislate Directly To Cure Abuses—Code The Only Way Out.

Washington, May 18 (AP)—NRA today concluded public hearings on its proposal to impose a code on the telegraph industry after Postal Telegraph officials had renewed requests for that action.

Howard L. Kern, Postal counsel, told officials his company had considered all other means of obtaining relief from what he called "unfair practices"; that the proposed communications commission could not work fast enough to give the necessary relief; that congress could not legislate directly to cure abuses, and that the code was the only way out.

A. H. Griswold, executive vice president of Postal, said the code's labor provisions, including a 40-hour week, would cost his concern $2,787,000 a year and that the benefits to be obtained, though substantial, would not fully offset this increased cost.

He insisted, however, his company was willing to undertake the labor proposal in expectation of eventual benefits.

Leighton H. Peebles, deputy administrator, concluded the session with an announcement that the hearing could be reconvened at the will of the administrator. He gave no inkling as to whether NRA intended to go through with imposing the code.

He asked C. P. Cooper, American Telephone and Telegram Company vice president, to state whether his concern was willing to consider an arrangement mentioned by Postal whereby the telegraphic leased wires of A. T. & T. would be operated under supervision of the regular telegraph companies which would police them to prevent free use of the circuits and other abuses.

Cooper said the question had been considered from all angles and A. T. & T. could not see any possibility of going further with it.

Radio Corporation of America, affected through the trans-oceanic radio communication services, objected to duplicate regulation such as the code might provide if adopted at the same time that the new communications system was set up.

Manton Davis, of RCA, said, however, his concern would "sign on the dotted line," whenever the other communications concerns could agree on a code. NRA has unsuccessfully sought such an agreement for more than six months.

Colburn Believes Missing Man Dead

Because George Colburn, late of Rhinebeck village, has been missing since 1923, his brother Harry E. Colburn of 32 Andrew street, Kingston, has instituted a proceeding in Surrogate Gleason's office in Poughkeepsie seeking to have George declared legally dead. There is a fund of $2,117.78 in the office of the Dutchess county treasurer which was held for George when his father, George L. Colburn, died at the town of Rhinebeck, September 16, 1927, and disposition of this fund is sought through a judicial declaration that the son, George, is dead. Benson R. Frost is attorney for the petitioner.

George Colburn wasn't heard from after his disappearance from his father's home in Rhinebeck in 1923. Attempts were made to locate him through Chief J. Allen Wood of the Kingston police, and Thomas L. Gisham of the Kingston postoffice, but no trace was found. The father left an estate valued at $6,761.25, of which $1,339.32 was set aside for George and deposited with the county treasurer. They fund now amounts to $2,117.78.

Half a dozen employees and patrons were in the bank. None offered any resistance, in the face of the omnium armament.

Time Draws Near For New Licenses

Albany, May 17—New York motorists who have failed to secure driving permits for 1934-35, are reminded that the licenses must be renewed within the next twelve working days. The license year ends May 21 and it will be illegal to drive with 1933-34 licenses after that date.

With the cooperation of the public renewals may be made without the slightest trouble. Just fill out an application blank, attach the renewal stub of the 1933-34 license to it. Then take or mail both with the correct fee to the nearest office of the Bureau of Motor Vehicles. Send money-order or check—not cash.

Motorists are cautioned that if re-licensing is put off until the last few days of the month they may lose time in long lines of applicants in the various offices. Bureau offices will be closed Wednesday, May 20.

Meeting of Stockholders of The State of New York National Bank Has Been Called For Next Tuesday

A meeting of the stockholders of the State of New York National Bank has been called for Tuesday next, at which time the stockholders will vote on a proposition to increase the capital stock of the bank by $200,000.

Notice has been given to the stockholders to that effect.

It is understood that the present stockholders will be given an opportunity to purchase the new stock, if such increase is authorized, but that in case they do not take up the stock the government stands ready and willing to take the new stock at four per cent interest.

Cashier Russell P. Clayton when questioned today regarding the matter stated that he had no announcement to make concerning the proposition.

Print With Plain Is Style Formula

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

THAT new style formula which calls for gay print combined with a monotone weave is taking the world of fashion by storm. The idea has so captivated designers they are working their imagination overtime in order to play up dramatically to this challenge to their genius. The three fetching costumes in the illustration tell an eloquent story in regard to this new and thrilling print-and-plain movement.

Let us consider first the perfectly charming model in the center. It requires genuine artistry to produce anything like this. The manner in which the daisy motif of the print is worked to relieve a straight waistline and to unify blouse and skirt is nothing less than a stroke of genius. The lining of the jacket which, by the way, reflects the very fashionable coolie-coat influence is also of the daisy print. White gloves, a navy hat and pocketbook and navy shoes carry a last word style message.

Did you think it a redingote ensemble—the costume to the left in the picture? It does look the part, we will admit, but in reality it is a voguish one-piece dress of navy sheer with a swirl of startling print dashing its way down the entire front of the frock. The collar may be worn open to show revers. Of course you have made mental note of the jaunty little white Breton sailor which this fashionable young woman is wearing. The wee feather brings just the right color note to this nobby headpiece.

Surprise number one is that the costume to the left is not a redingote ensemble and now for surprise number two which is to the effect that the costume to the right in the group is just that—a redingote model. This redingote of unusual styling buttons at one shoulder and down the side under the arm. While it looks as if it might be a one-piece dress it is really an entirely separate item and can be worn as a coat with any frock. A black sheer fabric fashions it and it tops a print crepe gown in yellow and black. Her black Milan straw Breton sailor is definitely chic.

So high does enthusiasm run for this alliance of print and a solid color you will find all sorts of neckwear fancies and accessories to wear with your one-color dresses made of gay Mexican and Roman-stripe or plaid prints. The new bib collars with cuffs to match are animated with cunning pleatings and bright buttons. Pastors of print silk which cover the entire front of the bodice and are tied about the waist are quite the rage. Try one of these with that navy or black frock which calls for a freshening spring touch. You will be elated to see what one of these neckwear sets of startling print can do to a hitherto somber frock.

Here's another suggestion, why not a boutonniere with gloves to match of multi-colored or checked print to wear with your spring tailored suit? Perhaps an audacious plaid or stripe scarf tied in a huge bow to wear with your navy or brown swaggar suit is more to your liking. By the way, had you heard about the increasing popularity of brown prints? This movement is worth watching. Many of these smart brown prints are patterned with lovely fresh spring yellows and vivid orange with a dash of pure white.

NUN INFLUENCE IN PLAYTIME STYLES

Playtime costumes for modish moderns recalling the habits of cloistered nuns have stepped upon the fashion stage as a novel note in spring fashions.

Though the black dinner costumes were lightened by gayer touches than a nun ever donned, and gold necklaces and earrings brightened the ensemble, the long-sleeved dinner frocks with demure high necks, the halo hats worn by the mannequins, the serenity of their faces and walk, lent a touch of the habit worn by the French "religieuses."

Madame Lanvin showed a long-sleeved, high-necked dinner gown of scarlet red crepe with an instep length black faille coat and a black halo hat. The mannequin, whose hair was swept serenely back from her face, wore two great gold ball earrings and a belt of golden oval heads. Another striking costume combined a long-sleeved frock of black face, a long black faille coat and hat.

Mannish Lines Disappear

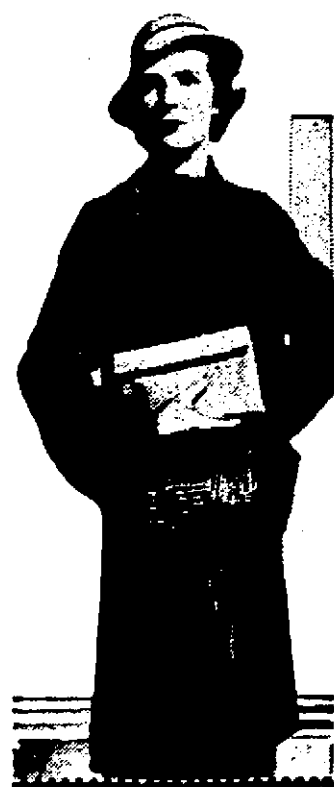

in Latest Spring Suits

Femininity is the essence of that new spring suit. Though a trimly tailored effect of simplicity is still the rule, the hard mannish line in vogue for several seasons has been tossed on fashion's scrap heap. Woofs are often a little softer, silhouettes look less as though they had been sketched by hard black crayon on white paper, accessories such as golden small or silver seashell fastenings are decidedly feminine.

Mid-Throated Organdy
Organdy gowns, woven with metal threads or splashed with shimmering sequins, are designed with full sweeping hems which billow about the wearer's feet.

STRIPE VELVET

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

Summer velvets are proving a great attraction to the style-conscious woman who is looking for the newest and the smartest materials. It can readily be seen from this picture that summer velvet in two-color stripe makes an exceedingly smart swaggar sports coat. You can visualize this in navy and white or brown and beige or other combinations, for this most desirable velvet comes in various color all-ances. The hat is trimmed, in a most effective manner, with a two-color velvet ribbon.

Marines Open Ranks To New Enlistment

The Marines are delivering body punches to the unemployment situation these days. After a long period, when but few applicants were enlisted, the famous Corps has started to accept 2,359 youths.

The provisions of a recent act of Congress increased the strength of the Corps from 15,000 to 16,000. This will leave it still below the strength of three years ago. The remainder will be required to fill the places left vacant by discharges and other causes.

With a view to obtaining the best men orders from headquarters in Washington direct that only those who have attended high school, or have an equivalent education, are to be enlisted. While it is desired to secure applicants at least 68 inches in height, recruiting officers are permitted to accept 50 per cent of their quota between 66 and 68 inches. The minimum age is 15 years, but a few boys to learn the drum and trumpet are being accepted between 17 and 18 years. Parents' consent for those who have not reached their majority and character references are required. Enlistments are for four years.

Recruits are immediately sent to the Marine Barracks, Parris Island, S. C., upon enlistment for training, after which they are transferred to posts where needed. Steady employment, travel, adventure, sports, free education, uniforms, and medical attention, comprise some of the features offered. The nearest recruiting station is located at 441 Washington street, New York.

French Village On Thresh Strike.
Thonon, France (P)—The 450 inhabitants of Thonon went on strike against the high cost of drinking and the nine cafes in the village found an ultimatum nailed to their doors demanding that wine be reduced 5 cents a quart. An offer of 3 cents was spurned.

Snake Lure at Cat;

Rattles His Last!

Los Angeles.—One record Tommie, formerly Pepper, an orange Persian tom cat, barked last in the scullery at the home of his mistress, Mrs. Mary Welch.

He had just dined on rattlesnake steak and a vanilla milk shake.

A four-foot diamond back rattler invaded Tommie's back yard and leered saucily at Tommie.

Tommie's back arched, his eyes dilated. Swiftly he sprang, sank his teeth into the snake's back and held on until death released the rattler.

Then Tommie emptied a saucer filled with vanilla flavored milk—himself his favorite dish—and calmly curled up and went to sleep.

CRASHING WALLS THIS MAN'S JOB

Motorcycle Racer Wins Fame in Daring Stunts.

Washington.—Crashing through walls at a speed of 75 miles an hour has brought fame and fortune to Clark Townsend, former amateur motorcycle racer.

Townsend, a native of Lisbon Falls, Maine, receives from $50 to $100 for riding a motorcycle through a 30 square foot wooden wall, one inch thick. He is one of five men in America who can accomplish this feat.

A motorcycle wall crasher for three years, he has suffered few minor injuries in more than 70 exhibitions.

Townsend fell heir to the profession by accident. In 1931, he explained, while riding 70 miles an hour down a highway, his motorcycle left the road and crashed through a rail fence. He escaped uninjured. It then occurred to him that he might make money by crashing through walls before audiences.

The New Englander performs on dirt tracks at fairs and motorcycle races. He circles the track, gathering speed, and then plows through the wall. Force of the impact, Townsend declared, throws the front wheel to the air and failure to crash through would prove fatal.

He is equipped with a crashproof helmet, shatter-proof goggles, hockey gloves padded with rubber sponges, felt enforced with leather caps for his knees, leather puttees, high shoes, leather jacket, heavy sweater and tightly wound tape about his neck. The motorcycle has break-proof tires, steel bumpers, special handlebars and a high-speed motor.

His Curiosity Brings Return of Stolen Bonds

Washington.—The curiosity of a Montgomery county policeman was responsible for the recovery of $11,000 in stock certificates and notes, stolen from the home of State Senator David Baile of Westminster, Md.

Herbert Miles, an employee of the state highway department, unearthed a canvas bag while working in a ditch near Damascus. He examined the contents, which appeared to be "pretty paper," and unconcernedly returned the pouch to the ditch.

Two weeks later Policeman Paul Watkins, learning of the discovery, decided he would see the "pretty papers." He instructed Miles to retrieve the bag.

One of the papers bore the name of Senator Baile as administrator of an estate. Baile told Watkins the bag had been stolen about a month before.

Canary Regains Voice and Sight After Illness

Harrisburg, Ill.—A fourteen-year-old canary owned by Mrs. Robert Rose of this city is the topic of much conversation of canary owners as a result of the bird regaining its voice and vision after nine years' silence and a few months' blindness.

According to Mrs. Rose, the bird, named Rex, stopped singing about nine years ago, and recently became blind. During the blindness Rex started singing and, after a "sinking spell" a few days ago, the bird apparently regained its vision.

Rex now watches people as they pass the cage and white spots disappeared from the eye pupils.

Rats Take False Teeth, Then Get Silverware

Oroville, Calif.—When trade rats carried away a set of false teeth from a cupboard bowl F. M. Wallace thought the limit had been reached. He didn't expect they would carry off the silverware as well, he said. Near the chimney in the attic of his home Wallace found three spoons, three knives, two forks and a collection of sundowner seeds. How the rats managed to carry the silverware into the upper part of the house was a mystery.

Creditors Carry Him at End
Boston.—Judge Joseph W. Monahan has signed many odd wills. One was that of a man who stipulated that six of his creditors be his pallbearers, explaining, "they have carried me for so long that they might as well finish the job."

19 Sets of Twins in School
Somerville, Mass.—A record hard to duplicate is held by St. Joseph's elementary and high schools. They have 19 sets of twins attending classes.

Have Hot Water Waiting for You

○DD, isn't it, when you come to think of it, how many homes are fairly modern, with lots of fine plumbing, including plenty of faucets marked "Hot," except that nothing but cold water comes out when those faucets are turned—that is, unless someone has remembered to turn something on, and will remember to turn it off again.

Right now there's less reason than ever before for any home to remain out-of-date in this important respect. New low gas and electric rates, which went into effect this Spring, have brought the cost of gas for automatic water-heating down lower than ever. And the automatic heater itself is easier to buy now. The best of heaters (electric or gas) may be purchased at a cost that will average no more than 50c per week. Why not find out about it?

POLISH BEGGAR AUCTIONS STAND TO QUIET DAUGHTER

Warsaw (AP)—There is excitement among the beggars of Warsaw, comparable to those high moments when a king abdicates or an industrial overlord gives up his mastery of men and wealth.

For Movshe Aksemdrot, the newspaper report, has sold his "stand" at the gates to the Jewish cemetery, a station which for generations has been the property of an Aksemdrot. There was Movshe's grandfather.

When he died Movshe's father became a fairly wealthy man, it is said. But Movshe's father continued to beg. At his death he left his oldest son a very decent house. To Movshe, the younger, went the "stand" and some money. He carried on the tradition. He educated his children. He lived as an honorable citizen. But one of his daughters, it is reported, could see no glamor in the old "stand," could not appreciate the generations of effort which had made it a source of endless coins

Bootleggers—Non-Alcoholic

Gasoline Pirates Form Syndicates in Biggest Racket Since Booze—Gyp Public with Bad Gas. Evade $200,000,000 Taxes.

Non-alcoholic bootlegging is picking the nation's pockets for billions of dollars a year. They peddle motor oil, kerosene, and kerosene, dodge taxes, sell the shoddy in guise of the genuine. They peddle candy, jewelry, art, food, medicines, watches, fashions, etc. Finding officialdom slow to process, private enterprise has formed its own vigilante organizations. It's war. This situation is described in a series of articles, of which this is the second.

By LOU WEDEMAR, World-Telegram Staff Writer.

A CONVOY of motor trucks, under cover of darkness, whirled through the back streets of a New Jersey city. Ahead ran a curtained limousine, in which men sat with guns in their hands, ready for attack by police or hijackers. Behind were several other curtained autos.

At a signal the trucks split up and turned into side streets, each accompanied by one escorting limousine. A tangle of no-passing signs and a driver's signal that the truck and its escort turned around and they stopped. Guards descended. "Yes—but the 1934 tax was sent out of the big bootlegging racket of which cost the public millions of dollars. Experts estimate that taxes of $100,000,000 to $200,000,000 annually are evaded by gasoline pirates, and state that since the end of prohibition this has become the nation's biggest racket. Getting the Evidence.

TAX $565.85 ON THIS CAR GASOLINE

Pennsylvania State police of the Schuylkill and Delaware rivers patrol search every suspected tank barge and fleet for bootleg gasoline. They have had many brushes.

the original gas, but not on the product. They sell this stuff sometimes as "ethyl"—much to the motorist's discomfort. A dangerous bootlegging ring is now operating in Manhattan. Hoodlums are persuading dealers to take their product, which analysis has shown to be of low grade. Intimidation has been resorted to in many cases. The fight against these bootleggers is on water as well as on land. For the waterfront of New York and New Jersey is used by bootleg barge to make large shipments, which are

Today

Kingston: "Journal of a Crime." Ruth Chatterton, actress long and well in this rather sordid drama of a woman driven to the point of desperation by another woman's love for her husband. Blinded by jealousy, she kills the rival of her husband's affections in order to retain her husband's love. This happens in the early stages of the play. Her husband shares her secret and he watches the effect of the crime play upon her thoughts and actions as time passes. The show has a most unusual ending. Skill and dramatic power by all the members of the cast help this show greatly. The plot and action holds interest, and it is enjoyable entertainment for the adult mind. Adolphe Menjou, Claire Dodd and George Barbier are featured.

Orpheum: "Sleepers East" and "16 Fathoms Deep." The first feature is unusual because of the plot which is nicely tangled up most of the time. It's all about a girl trying to be bad because the baby of her friend is hungry. The action is hard to follow and the cast tries to do its best in difficult assignments. Wynne Gibson and Preston Foster head the cast. "16 Fathoms Deep" is one of those water dramas with Sally O'Neil and Creighton Chaney.

Broadway: "Laughing Boy." The Pulitzer prize winning novel is here translated to the screen by the director of "White Shadows in the South Seas", "Trader Horn", "Tarzan" and other hit pictures. It is the story of a primitive boy and girl, brought up in the west, guided by their emotions and the tribal traditions behind them. The native girl goes to civilization and learns the tricks of the white man. When she returns, she has changed in dress and manner. Ramon Novarro, in the starring role, gives the most natural and capable performance of his career and Lupe Velez is unusually good as the wilder little native girl. Dramatic and moving entertainment.

Tomorrow

Kingston: "Sadie McKee." Vina Delmar, the young lady who knows how to create best selling novels, is responsible for this talking picture starring role. Miss Delmar's heroine is almost always of the underdog variety and Sadie McKee follows in the best tradition. Poor, trampled upon, peered upon by men, Sadie McKee is just one of thousands of girls until she climbs the ladder to ermine and orchids. She does this, as you may suspect, through the aid, generosity and adoration of men. Three men enter her life and each leaves their mark. In the end she discovers that the one she hated at first is really the big moment in her life. Miss Crawford makes a fine Sadie McKee and seems to enjoy her part. Gene Raymond, Herbert Aronson and Franchot Tone are also in the cast.

Orpheum: Same.
Broadway: Same.

Local students received the first diphtheria inoculation Tuesday afternoon at Clintondale Grange Hall. Dr.

William Branner of New Paltz was in charge. The second inoculation is to be given next week.

Mrs. Degroot was a caller in Modena Wednesday.

Mrs. Peter Rooney of Modena spent Wednesday afternoon in town.

Guests of Honor.

Always have the guest of honor sit at the right of the host or hostess at a luncheon or dinner. If it is a dinner party and the guests of honor are a man and a woman, have the woman sit at the right of the host and the man sit at the right of the hostess.

Picnic Tips.

When stuffing tomatoes for picnics, a good way to keep them intact and fresh is to pour paraffin over them.

When cutting bread for sandwiches which you wish to be particularly dainty and of fancy shape, always cut lengthwise to avoid waste.

HOLLYWOOD SIGHTS & SOUNDS

By ROBBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD—The impression that every actor with the slightest chance of breaking into pictures in Hollywood is scooped by a heavy-handed talent agent.

Having concluded that beauty contests are not the public source of talent for films they once were—now are imagined to be—Hollywood is going into the cities and towns to ferret out beautiful players and catapult them into its hungry maw.

In stock companies over the country, believes David C. Warner, Universal's leading director, there must be many talented actors and actresses who have preferred the security of steady jobs in stock to the uncertainty of competition in Hollywood.

Warner is going out, in person, to take a look and if he finds such phenomena as why actors, he will try to persuade them to take the leap.

Seeks Shy Stars
Warner's quest—embracing all the cities and towns that have stock companies of any size—differs from the average talent hunt in that he will seek character players as well as youthful beauties. In some of these smaller groups, he believes, may be found unsung Marie

Waters, unheralded Lionel Barrymore, as well as undiscovered Margaret Sullavan or Joan Crawford.

Such a search, headed by a studio casting director, is a far cry from former movie methods when new faces were desired. The old star was a beauty contest, but now a face is placed in photographic beauty novads. The rule is film love.

However, some of the "search for beauty" winners, of whom there were 30, have been awarded new contracts by Paramount Pictures.

More "Character"
The motion picture has turned the legitimate stage's thoughts more intensely to characterization—and it's a break for the actor.

The observation is Porter Hall's. Hall, a favorite Broadway character player who came for "The Thin Man" and is reported in line for a part in Garbo's next film, remarks that the film's emphasis on plot has forced the stage to seek another forte in the "unusual characterization."

Now, he says, instead of the plot's being the backbone of a play, it's up to the actor to make it a success.

Three men at Warrenton, N. C., have engaged in their own private poker games regularly since 1866.

PORT EVEN

Port Even, May 18.—The Clever Sunday school class of the Methodist Church will meet at the home of Miss Jessie Torres at 7:30 this evening.

Alexander Crook is ill of grip at his home on Broadway.

Hope Lodge, No. 65, Kof. P. will hold its weekly meeting this evening.

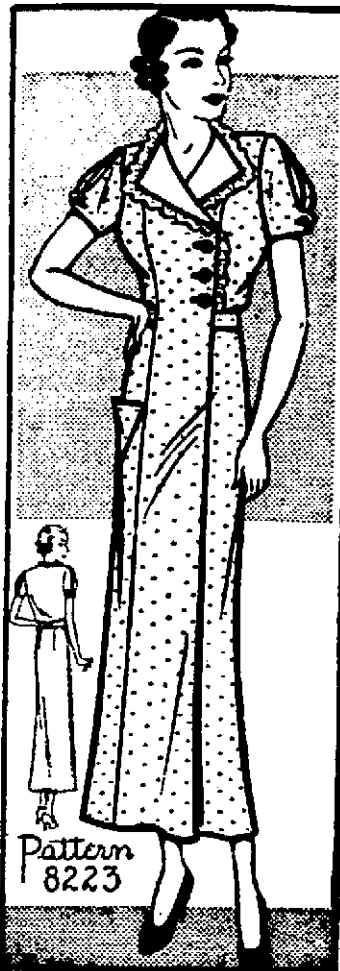

Mrs. William Ferguson had the misfortune to lose her glasses on Broadway one day recently.

There will be no meeting of the Boy Scouts this evening. Instead the whole cast for "Spook Island" will rehearse.

The annual strawberry supper of the Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist Church will be held in the church house, Thursday evening, May 24.

Two plays will be given in the Reformed Church house Friday evening, May 25. These plays entitled "Awful Squad" and "Spook Island" will be given by the Boy Scouts of Troop No. 26. The proceeds will enable the scouts to go to camp.

OUR DAILY PATTERN

Attractive Apron Frock
8223. The classical apron frock is here relieved of its severity by the addition of ruffling around the revers, back of neck and front opening. It also has another feminine touch in its slashed and puffed sleeves and cornucopia pocket. All of these variations make this an unusual design, becoming and practical. This frock is very simple to make, having the panel in the front only, and being fitted in at the waistline in back by means of darts.

Printed linen would be pretty in this design, or polka dot batiste, white ground with red dots and white revers and ruffling. Omit the ruffling and finish underneath with bias binding if you desire a plainer finish.

Designed in sizes: 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42. Size 38 requires 5 yards of 35 inch material with 1/2 yard contrasting.

A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address (a receipt of 12c in coin or stamps by the Pattern Department, The Freeman, Kingston, N. Y. Be sure to state the size wanted).

Book of Fashions, 1934.
Send 15c in coin or money order for our new and fascinating Pattern Book, showing the way to a complete wardrobe of new things, simple and inexpensive to make, also hints to the Home Dressmaker.

NOW EATS ANY KIND OF FOOD, AND NO CONSTIPATION

Mr. Durigan Finds Relief in Kellogg's ALL-BRAN

Here is his enthusiastic letter:

"Am 70 years of age, and for 40 of these years there never was a week but what I had to take a pill or some kind of cathartic."

"I took everything, but gained only temporary relief. Until last spring my daughter, who is a nurse in a hospital, brought me some Kellogg's ALL-BRAN."

"At the end of the week, I knew I had something that was it, and I kept on taking it. Haven't taken a cathartic since. I can eat meat any time, as often as I like, or any other kind of food, and no constipation."

Mr. L. M. Durigan, 6811 Buffalo Ave., Jacksonville, Florida.

Laboratory tests show Kellogg's ALL-BRAN provides "bulk" to exercise the intestines, and vitamin B to help muscle tone. Also iron for the blood.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is much like that of lettuce. Inside the body, it forms a soft mass. Gently, it cleans out the intestinal system.

How much water does your body need? Two tablespoons daily are usually sufficient. With each meal in warm weather. If not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Sold in the red-and-green package. At all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

With Darker Accents

New York.—We need no introduction to eyelet embroidery and we need to do no missionary work for it. That there is a new crop of eyelet embroidered linen frocks, some topped by self coats and others to be worn with contrasting ones is good news to most. The new crop is darker in color and if you don't like brown or blue or even if you do rasp-berry is the best suggestion there is.

There are any number of mesh fabrics also offered, a swell as loosely woven basket weaves in both wool and cotton and in those stunning mesh made fabrics all of which have names to distinguish them but really all belong to one big happy family.

Let your fabric choice be what it will, it is well to bear in mind that the feeling is for novelties and for darker colors than are usually worn at this season. Lingerie blouses for instance, are being sold in so-called suit colors, but this does not mean that the suits match the blouse.

On the contrary lighter suits and darker blouses and accessories are the order of the day. For instance the "dirty" pastel tweeds so good for suits just now are nearly always worn with darker sweaters. This brings to mind the interesting point that while twins are usual in the sweater tribe, they make no point of resembling each other.

It stands to reason with cotton king of summer fabrics, that accessories, gloves even, should also be fabric. If you want to have traditions knocked into a cocked hat all you have to do is visit any up to date glove department. You'll get the surprise of your life for have gloves gone gay and are they a great responsibility on our hands. Each custom rates its own particular and sympathetic glove.

A LINEN ENSEMBLE

DID YOU KNOW THAT

Net is a boon in withstanding the wear of travel, and has such a high style rating. Dark net is used for daytime dresses, suits and blouses, in plain and printed versions, also the suitable lighter prints and pastels for more formal demands of the afternoon, and again in dance frocks for evening.

An effective costume is composed of a novelty eyelet plaid fabric with white and brown on an aqua ground. The front is laced with white lacing. The three-quarter length brown linen coat has a wide collar and cuffs of white pique trimmed with little ruffled edges.

Peasant Linen for the Beach Costume

Copyright, 1934, by Fairchild

At left, is a two-piece linen costume composed of shorts and jacket blouse in white linen. The blouse features handblocked peasant designs. At right, natural peasant linen is employed for two-piece pajamas with dull embroidery of massed French knots in red and black. The mesh is in red silk crepe emphasizing what is cited as the South American nature of this costume.

SAUGHERIES BANKERS AT CONFERENCE IN N. Y. C.

New York, May 17 (Special)—S. B. Maxwell and G. F. Axtell, of the Saugheries Savings Bank, are in New York attending the 14th annual conference of the National Association of Mutual Savings Banks at the Hotel Waldorf-Astoria. More than 600 bankers, coming from eighteen states, are participating.

In addition to the five business sessions, which apparently have as their keynote "the least government is the best government," an extensive social program has been arranged for the delegates. The annual grand ball takes place in the hotel this evening. Tomorrow will prove a busy day with several luncheons, dinners, golf matches and inspection tours scheduled.

PEASANTS AND SPANES ON "BRIDGE" FROCK

Paris (P)—Fashionables who take their bridge seriously may wear their hearts and spades on their frocks this year. Paton shows in his mid-season collection a frock of white quilted cotton splashed with red, blue, green and black hearts, spades, diamonds and clubs. It is trimmed with a light green mesh collar.

IRON GRAY TAFFETA CHIC FOR EVENING

Paris (P)—Leaf prints are smart this spring. Iron gray taffeta, black crepe, or brown chiffon splashed with white leaves make some of the smartest afternoon and evening frocks of the season. One chic evening gown in the mid-season collections was fashioned of iron gray taffeta splashed with white leaves, and finished with a brilliant pimento red taffeta girde.

ELLENVILLE FIRE EXPERT AND BROTHER ON TRIP

Charles G. A. Fischer, veteran fire engineer of the Ellenville fire department, accompanied by his brother, Morris Fischer, left Tuesday morning on an auto trip, expecting to be gone from home for six weeks. Their first objective will be Ogden, Utah, where Morris Fischer was for 36 years engaged with the Southern Pacific Railroad. Later they expect to visit San Francisco, as south as far as the Mexican border, return north, possibly to Portland, Oregon, and Seattle, Washington, and spend some time at the Chicago Fair before returning home. Chief Fischer has visited every state in the Union with the exception of Texas.

Two Freed on Bond In Moral Offense Case

Wife of Former St. Louis Mayor and Chicago Broker Will Have Trial Tuesday in Miami—Brother Faces Mann Act Charge.

Miami, Fla., May 18 (AP)—Charged with moral offenses, Mrs. Mabel K. Miller, wife of former Mayor Victor J. Miller of St. Louis, and Leonard C. Schofield, erstwhile Chicago insurance broker, were freed on bond today pending their trial in criminal court here, tentatively set for next Tuesday.

They were released from the county jail after a series of swiftly moving events that surrounded their arrest on the complaint of Julius Miller, brother of the former St. Louis mayor.

The couple faces trial on state charges of adultery and lewd and lascivious behavior for which their bond was fixed at $2,500 each. Schofield, secretary to the former Missouri state head, also is charged in the state court with enticement of a female for immoral purposes. A second $2,500 bond was posted for that.

Schofield, who authorities said was divorced from his wife in Chicago last January, also is at liberty under a third $2,500 bond on a Federal Mann Act violation charge, while Mrs. Miller was released on her own recognizance as a material witness in this case.

Victor Miller, though adjudged incompetent in New York state to handle his affairs, has obtained a temporary injunction in circuit court here restraining Schofield from disposing of a large residence and yacht, and from use of a bank account.

Miller alleges the house and yacht were purchased with his money, and that Schofield has been using his money for payment of personal expenses of the Chicagoan. A hearing on the injunction will be granted on application by Schofield.

The former mayor's petition relates that while enjoying the "full confidence" of Miller, Schofield "has practically full control over the business and financial affairs" of the Missourian.

E. B. Kurtz, attorney for Miller, said the New York order, obtained at White Plains last fall by Mrs. Miller and naming her the former mayor's guardian, does not affect Miller's legal status in Florida.

Poughkeepsie Man Burns Child's Body

Max A. Reuterhan, Principal of Morse School in Bridge City, Threw Body of Stillborn Child in School Furnace—Poughkeepsie Authorities Investigating.

Max A. Reuterhan, veteran principal of the Samuel F. B. Morse School in Poughkeepsie, on Wednesday night burned the body of a five-months' stillborn baby in the furnace of the school, and Poughkeepsie authorities are now investigating the sensational disclosure, according to the Poughkeepsie newspapers.

Mr. Reuterhan's only explanation of why he kept secret the discovery of the body near the school and its cremation in the furnace was that he was seeking to avoid notoriety and unpleasantness over the incident.

Questioned after the police were informed that Morse pupils had found the body, Mr. Reuterhan told them that he had thrown the body in the furnace after being told by Dr. Helen L. Pallister, medical inspector of the local schools, that the body was that of a stillborn child.

The body was found on a steep bank leading down to the Fallkill where it sweeps by the Morse School grounds. The body was thrown there Tuesday night, it is believed.

Thomas L. Lavery, assistant district attorney, who headed the investigation, said that so far as he had completed the investigation he saw no crime involved.

100,000 Greet Martin On Return to Havana

Havana, May 18 (AP)—Overcome by the huge demonstration greeting his return to Cuba today, Ex-President Ramon Grau San Martin fainted as he entered his home here and was carried prostrate to his bed room.

Apparently the ex-president had been unable to stand the vigorous welcome by the 100,000 well-wishers who were waiting to meet him when he got off the boat this morning.

Many of them patted him on the back and shook his hand along the three-mile route over the Prado and Malecon to his home.

Although orderly at all times, the crowd was unable to control its emotions on greeting the man who was forced to leave the presidency last January and has now returned from Mexico.

FIRST RECITAL FOR THE ROGER BAER STUDIO

The Roger Baer Studio under the direction of Roger Baer Schwartz is now located at 3 North Front street, formerly located on 25 Johnston avenue. For the past weeks pupils have been planning on giving their first recital under the Roger Baer Studio in Accord, at the Dutch Reformed church on Wednesday, May 23 at 8:15. Only 15 of the 35 pupils registered with the studio will participate in this recital, due to the fact that the recital is to be one and a half hours long.

This will be the first recital of its kind to entertain the people of Accord and neighboring villages. During the course of the program piano, accordion, vocal and clarinet compositions will be rendered in popular and classical form.

The public is cordially invited, and especially those interested in classical and popular music.

13 American Girls Win Right To Enter France on Visas Today

Concerted Action on Part of University of Madrid Authorities and French Foreign Office Wins Point For College Students.

Madrid, May 18 (AP)—The thirteen American college girls who had been refused permission to enter France without certificates of good conduct won their "battle of visas" today against the French consul without filing a single cablegram.

Twelve of the girls are from Smith College and the other from Barnard College of Columbia University. The consul yesterday had refused to grant them visas unless they cabled to America for character vouchers.

Today he capitulated. "The visas are ready for the girls at any time," he announced. He gave profuse explanations, but declared he would reserve the right in the future to demand assurance of good character from any other person desiring to visit France.

His surrender today came after officials of the Foreign Students Department of the University of Madrid had called on him in behalf of the American girls. The girls have just completed a short course at the university and planned to take up temporary studies in France.

Although informed by the director of the American group that the conflict was over, Curtis Jordan, United States consul, said he is still awaiting a letter of explanation from the French consul.

A thorough investigation by the American authorities was under way when the controversy ended.

Harriman Cashier Gives Stock Deals

Former Bank Officer Tells How Alleged "Irregularities" Were Performed Over His Head—Only Credits Were Shown.

New York, May 18 (AP)—The government's first evidence to link J. W. Harriman to alleged false entries in the books of the Harriman National Bank was given to a federal jury today by Arnold Colombo, the bank's cashier, who still is employed by the federal receiver.

Colombo testified that Albert M. Austin, executive vice president who is co-defendant with Harriman, came to him on April 25, 1932, and told him:

"Mr. Harriman made some stock sales and asked me to see that the proper entries are made."

The witness said the conversation referred to alleged spurious sales of the bank's stock totalling $1,393,089, which were charged on the books that day against 11 depositions.

On April 28, he said, the debits were cancelled by credits, making the books show reversed sales.

Colombo testified the alleged false sales wiped out a Harriman Securities Corporation "suspense account," on the day that examiners for the New York Clearing House Association scrutinized the books.

Colombo said he was uneasy about the entries, that the procedure was unusual, but that he was in no position to complain. He was shown the bank's ledger which showed the stock sales to depositors to the amount of $1,393,089, on April 25, 1932.

He was then handed the cash receipts book of the Harriman Securities Corporation, supposed seller of the stock, and asked to find the transaction there.

"There were no transactions by the Harriman Securities Corporation on that date," he said, looking at the book.

Many State Positions To Be Filled Soon

Jobs Pay From $800 to $6,000 a Year Run Wide Category of Governmental Occupations.

Albany, N. Y., May 18 (AP)—The ABC Control Board wants an Italian interpreter in Oneida county. A game protector at least five feet nine inches tall is needed in Tompkins county. State insurance department needs two real estate appraisers.

About 25 kinds of state, county and village jobs paying from $800 to $6,000 a year are to be filled soon. The civil service department announced written examinations today for June 16 for the following positions:

Assistant district state health officer, $3,000; assistant typist in state and county departments and institutions, $900 to $1,500; chief occupational therapist for Gowanda State Homeopathic Hospital at $1,500 and maintenance.

Dietitian for Onondago County Sanatorium, $75 per month and maintenance; physician for state institute at Buffalo, $2,400; Greek interpreter in labor department, $1,220; supervisor of narcotic control, $2,161 to $2,649.

Two principal real estate appraisers, $6,000 and $5,000; highway foreman, $5 a day.

Besides these there are state jobs for a steam fireman; stenographer and roentgenologist; and county and village jobs for a bookbinder, Bronx; probation officer, Niagara; child supervisor, Nassau; engineer, Monroe; storekeeper, Westchester; pediatrician, Westchester; election secretary, Suffolk; supervisor of Foster Homes, Suffolk; registrar of vital statistics, Peekskill.

Carnivals Not Motivated

The only camel caravans between southern and northern China that are never motivated by brigands are the "ghost trains" that bring back the bodies of emigrants for burial with their survivors. These caravans are sometimes a mile long and carry more than 1,000 camels, four to a camel.

To Apply For Writ In Loughran Case

Attorney Harry H. Flemming Will Seek Writ Next Friday to Have Loughran Quicker Reviewed by Appellate Division.

Harry H. Flemming, attorney for James F. Loughran who was ousted as county superintendent of highways by the Democratic members of the board of supervisors, will apply next Friday to Supreme Court Judge Foster at Monticello for a writ of certiorari under which the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court may review the testimony and determine whether the board was justified in removing Mr. Loughran from office.

Affidavits will be presented to Judge Foster stating the grounds upon which a review is asked.

Chairman Alfred Markle of the board of supervisors and County Attorney Arthur B. Ewig have been served with notice of the motion before Judge Foster.

Mr. Loughran was dismissed by a 17 to 16 vote of the board of supervisors after a hearing on charges, the Democrats voting solidly for his dismissal. The charges were originally brought by Supervisor McDevitt of Waverburg but were adopted later by the board by a 17 to 16 vote and on the eighteen charges of McDowell a hearing was held. At that hearing the county attorney appeared on behalf of those bringing the charges and after a long session two of the charges were dismissed but on the remaining 16 the 17 Democrats voted solidly to remove Mr. Loughran. The 16 Republicans opposed the dismissal. Harry H. Flemming appeared for Mr. Loughran and at the conclusion of the case he announced that an appeal would be taken and a review of the case had before the Appellate Division under a writ of certiorari.

Horse and Phone Wire Cause of Court Case

Plaintiff Alleges Horse Injured by Phone Wire Being Strung So That He Had To Be Killed.

A rather unusual case was taken up for trial in supreme court Thursday afternoon and continued today. It is an action brought by Florence E. Griffin against the New York Telephone Company to recover damages for injuries to a horse which plaintiff alleges was injured when it became tangled up in telephone wires which workmen were stringing over the Griffin property on the Hurley road in 1931.

Plaintiff alleges that the company's employees negligently conducted the operation and as a result the horse became tangled up in the wire, was injured and eventually had to be shot. The horse was a valuable one and witnesses called testified that the horse was worth $2,500. Among those who testified was James O. Winston, owner of the Saugerties Stock Farms and a man who is an expert on horse values.

The men employed by the company testified that they had gone to the scene to take down an old line and install a new wire. The old line had been cut and passed under the fence of the paddock in which the horse was. The new line had been attached and the men were about to start pulling through the new line when the horse became entangled. One of the men first learned of the matter when he was jerked from his feet as the horse caught in the wire. He said he had observed the horse in the paddock when the work was started but he had not noticed the horse come up to where the wire was being strung. An employee came and took the horse away.

Charles de la Vergne and A. J. Cook appeared for plaintiff and Charles T. Russell is attorney of record for the defendant company.

It is alleged that the work was being carried on in the paddock in a negligent manner while the horse was present in the paddock and that proper precautions were not taken to protect the stock in that and adjoining paddocks.

Market for Fruits And Vegetables

New York, May 18 (AP)—(State Department of Agriculture and Markets)—The following quotations represent prices on sales by commission merchants and other original receivers on the New York city downtown wholesale district up to 3 a. m.

Attractive quality celery met a prompt outlet at a slight price advance. Supplies were moderate and exclusively from Florida, fancy stock washed, packed in ten inch crates containing from 3 to 5 dozen stalks jobbed out at 2.75-3.25. The poorer sold from 2.00-2.50.

The season's first carload of Florida watermelons arrived yesterday and wholesaled at $8.50. They weighed from 22 to 30 pounds each. Watermelons were in moderate receipts from Cuba and peddled slowly from 65 cents-1.25.

Low prices featured the market for spinach. Offerings were available from New York state, Virginia, Pennsylvania and New Jersey. Jobbing transactions were reported from 25-30 cents per bushel basket. The tone of the market was slightly stronger for asparagus and potatoes. Downward trend was noted for string beans, beets, cabbage, cucumbers, radishes, romaine, squash and tomatoes.

WOODSTOCK.

Woodstock, May 18.—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jordan are at their summer home in Rock City.

The community house was successfully navigated across Tinker street yesterday and faced in position. It is waiting now upon jacks to be lowered on to the pier where it will rest for another season.

Ken Wilson opened the Tinker street trolley track yesterday.

U. P. A. Drubs The Senecas In Twilighter At Hasbrouck, 16-6

Johnny Weiss's "Pater Proximo" Dealers Association ball club tomahawked Tony Debrosky's Senecas, 16-6, Thursday evening in the Downtown Twilighter at Hasbrouck, which netted them 17 off two Indian pitchers, W. Debrosky and Embree. Eddie Murphy and Herb Van Deusen, U. P. A. twirlers allowed only six hits.

The Grocers started off by collecting eight runs in the first inning, added one in the fifth, five in the sixth and two in the seventh. The Senecas got four in the third and two in the fourth. Dykes led the attack of the winners with four hits out of five trips to the plate. Don Kelly, Weiss, F. Leskie, and Krom hit doubles for the U. P. A. Tony Debrosky smashed out a triple for the Indians and Embree a double. Stewart hit twice out of two times up.

Runs in the first inning were cleaned on singles by Rymer, Dykes, a walk to Murphy, a double by Weiss, a walk to John Kelly. Van Deusen's single, Rymer's second hit, Embree's error and Dykes's second safety. This gave the Grocers their eighth run lead.

In the third the Senecas got their four runs on singles by Lamb, Turk, Stewart and T. Debrosky and Embree's double.

The fifth saw the U. P. A. add one more when Krom doubled and John Kelly singled. In this same frame the Indians scored two on Stewart's single, T. Debrosky's triple and Proctor's single.

Five more runs came to the Weissmen in the sixth. Singles were hit by Don Kelly, Leskie, Embree committed his second error. Krom singled and Proctor misread giving the U. P. A. their bigger lead.

The seventh frame brought two more to the Grocers. There was a single by Don Kelly, a force-out, Leskie's double and Murphy's single to bring about the score.

Drubbing the Senecas put the U. P. A. in better fighting spirit for this evening when it will meet the Seventh Ward Democrats at Block Park. Starting time of this contest is 7:15. Indications are that there will be a crowd on hand for the diamond war.

Last night's game finished the Twilight League schedule for this week. Contests are slated for next week as follows: Tuesday, Maydewers vs. U. P. A. Wednesday, S. & K. vs. Rlenzo A. C. Thursday, Hercules vs. Senecas.

Self-Made Sarazen Wedge Gets Him Out of Traps

By ALAN GOULD
(Associated Press Sports Editor)

New York (AP)—When he's "hot," there isn't a club in the bag that Gene Sarazen doesn't take out and swing. He plays with accurate results.

The national professional champion has been noted among the low craftsmen as one of the best long iron players in the game. Never a consistently great putter, Gene helped avoid too many headaches on the greens by the artfulness with which he executed mangle niblicks shot from the 50-to-160 yard range. His wood shots also are an outstanding feature of his game.

His hot shot, however, is a semi-explosion from a sand trap. Long before the flat-faced "sand wedge" was commercially perfected, under special patents, Sarazen, a member of the United States Golf Association, Sarazen placed the outlawed cone-faced niblick with a heavy bladed, straight-faced club of his own manufacture.

He worked on it for hours in the shop, meanwhile experimenting daily in the sand, and finally produced a weapon that gave consistently remarkable results. He developed astounding accuracy to a point where spectators generally hesitated to wager even money that Gene would not get the ball close enough to the hole, from any designed bunker, to get down with a single putt.

"Trap shots that used to give me a fit became easy and I attribute a number of my tournament victories to the fact I frequently was able to recover from the sand without losing a stroke," says Sarazen. "It is true that failure to get out of two bunkers cost me the 1933 British open title but that was no fault of the club or my ability to use it. I simply happened to get unplayable lies twice."

"But the year before I came out of a bunker on the home hole at Fresh Meadow with only a short putt which I got down to clinch the open championship of the United States."

Full Explosions More Difficult

"The extra weight in the sand wedge helps to give better control. I play the shot off the right foot, shorten the swing and hit slightly behind the ball. I do not attempt to dig into the sand heavily, for the reason that a full explosion shot is more difficult to gauge and control. On most shots out of a bunker I am not merely attempting to get the ball out but as close to the pin as possible."

Browns Put Flourish On Tour In East By Winning Four Games

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, JR.
(Associated Press Sports Writer.)

Stimulated by the influence and example of Manager Rogers Hornsby, the St. Louis Browns have begun to assume a threatening attitude toward their American League rivals.

After a bad start which allowed them to remain out of the cellar only because the Chicago White Sox were even less successful, the Browns wound up their recent eastern tour with a flourish of four victories in their last five games. Returning home yesterday they averaged two defeats in Boston and the losers Red Sox 4 to 3, moved ahead of the Indians into sixth place in the standing, virtually tied with Washington for the next higher notch.

east as Chuck Klein socked his tenth and eleventh homers and led the way to a 10-3 triumph over the Phillies. Pittsburgh dropped to second when Earl Grace made a wild throw past first trying for a double play in the tenth inning of a hurling duel between Van Mungo and Bill Swift and the error gave Brooklyn a 2 to 1 decision.

The St. Louis-New York struggle for third place remained unchanged as both clubs won. The cards dealt Boston 5 to 3. Big Fred Fitzsimmons pitched and batted the Giants to a 6 to 3 victory over Cincinnati.

Allison Will Join The Davis Cup Team

Philadelphia, May 18 (AP)—The rising hopes of the American Davis Cup tennis team received another boost today—Wilmer Allison is due at the training scene after reporting his injury to be less serious than was at first believed.

Allison, last of the squad to arrive at the Merion Cricket Club, in Haverford, sprained an ankle in Washington two weeks ago. The Texan revealed that he has been practicing easily for the past few days in Washington, but can't do much running yet.

The five members of the squad besides Allison are Frank X. Shields, Lester Stofen, George Lott, Sidney B. Wood and John Van Ryn.

Local Artillerymen Trim Newburgh, 11-4 In Polo at The Armory

The Kingston officers of the First Battalion, 156th Field Artillery defeated the officers of the Second Battalion, Newburgh, in their polo match Thursday evening at the new armory, 11-4.

In the four chukkers goals were scored as follows:

Kingston	1	2	3	4
Newburgh	2	1	3	5-11
	2	0	2	0-4

Figuring in the Kingston scoring were Captain C. N. Behrens, and Lieutenants Carl Eckert, Ernest Steuding and Richard Shultz, the latter starring in the fifth chukker. Dick went in as a relief man and brought plenty of ginger with him. Players who saw action for the First Battalion: Captain C. N. Behrens, who is captain of the team; Captain C. S. Preston, and Lieutenants C. Eckert, James Byrne, Ernest Steuding, C. Chase and R. Shultz.

The Newburgh team was composed of Lieutenants Lockhead, Spieser and Richardson and Sergeant Haight, reserve.

The referee was Joe Burns and timer John Roosa, of Kingston.

After the polo match the National Guardsmen enjoyed a social.

Tigers Feature Opening Of Duckpin League At Emerick's

SPORT SLANTS

By ALAN J. GOULD
(Associated Press Sports Editor)

At the risk of boring you with this foot-racing business, I'd like to say a few more words about those two great rivals, Glenn Cunningham and Bill Bonthron, who will battle each other again down the stretch of a one-mile duel this June on Princeton's fast cinder track. At least, everybody hopes it will be fast, because either of these stoutly built lads has it in him to do the mile in the astounding time of 4:06 or even better.

Out west, the idea had grown that Bonthron and Princeton were not anxious for a renewal of rivalry with Cunningham, whereas the fact is the Tiger athletic authorities took the initiative in promoting one of the most interesting track meets arranged in years, featuring these two marvelous runners.

I happen to know that Bonthron, personally, was so anxious to meet Cunningham again that he was willing to go out to Milwaukee late in June for the National A. A. U. championships, prior to sailing with the combined Princeton-Cornell team to England this summer. Tiger Bill was naturally delighted when he discovered Cunningham also was eager enough for the fray to make his fifth or sixth trip of the year from Lawrence, Kan., to the eastern front for a special race.

A Great Summer Schedule.

These two renowned milers between them have a great program for the summer campaign. Bonthron may go to Milwaukee for the National A. A. U. meet so that he and Cunningham will have two good cracks together at the record. Following that Tiger Bill sails with the college team for England, where he will match strides with his Oxford rival, Jack Lovelock, in the White City stadium, just outside London, on July 21.

Cunningham, on three successive Saturdays, will run against Bonthron at Princeton, take the train to Los Angeles for the National Collegiate, then return for the A. A. U. championships at Milwaukee.

Our latest information is that the reports of Lovelock's knee injury were a bit exaggerated and that the slim New Zealander will be in prime condition for another record-breaking contest with Bonthron this summer. He declined the bid to come over for the Princeton invitation meet, June 15, but was obliged to do so because of his studies, rather than any personal objection of lack of condition.

Records Falling Fast.

Two of the track and field records that were the toughest to crack for years were the mile and the shotput. Yet both have now been battered beyond recognition, within less than a year's time.

Until last summer, only one runner, Ladoumègue of France, had negotiated the mile under 4:10. Since then Cunningham has done it twice, Bonthron and Lovelock once each. All three figure to hang up before they get through this season. Meanwhile, the case with which Big Jack Torrance of Louisiana State has been heaving the 16-pound ball to record distances is positively shocking to old-timers. The other day Torrance let go an exhibition heave of 56 feet 5 inches which is more than three feet beyond the present listed world record. He has done 55 feet, 1 1/4 inches in competition.

As if this were not phenomenal enough, Stanford has a 54-foot shotputter in John Lyman and there's no telling what these boys will do when they get together.

DAVIDSON IN MEMORIAL DAY RACES AT ALBANY TRACK

Albany, N. Y., May 15.—Jay Davidson, of Oneonta, N. Y., veteran of fifteen years in automobile racing has announced he will drive in the Eastern AAA dirt track championship races to be held at Albany Fairgrounds half-mile track on Memorial Day.

A tried driver, Davidson has scored many victories in his fifteen years at the wheel. But not once has he finished first at Albany, the one place he would like to crash through, as it is the nearest big-time race to his home-town.

Davidson, who is used to fast company, will have strong competition here. Included in the field of drive will be Johnny Hanson, leader in the battle for the Eastern championship; Bob Ball, defending title-holder, and "Blood Lily" Wins, holder of the track record and many times winner here.

Giants Must Have Batting Punch And Good Pitching To Keep Title

By ALAN GOULD
(Associated Press Sports Editor)

New York, May 18 (AP)—Disappointed so far with the efforts of the Giants to outpoint the opposition with fancy footwork and a light left jab, Colonel Will Terry passed the word to his men today to "stick and slug," even if it takes all summer.

"We are still alive and kicking," smiled the champions' manager, "but there's no use kidding ourselves that we can win as many low score games with this lack of hitting ball as we did last year or that our pitching defense is going to be as good as we need, until Parmelee returns. For that reason I have shifted the line-up to get more batting punch. O'Doul will stick as long as he keeps hitting and I'm hoping Johnny Vergez will snap out of his slump in time to deliver his former driving power."

"The livelier ball has helped us as much as it has any of the other clubs. There's Joe Moore, for instance. He has hit four back bats so far, almost as many as he got all last year. Mel Ott is getting more distance, too. And we would have had a tougher time in the West without Travis Jackson's bat."

For all that Terry talks about the value of a solid base-hit as good strategy, however, he clings to the conviction that pitching will decide whether the Giants keep the championship or yield to the challenge of one of the three western clubs that ruffed the New Yorkers around and snatched them off their legs here.

"If we can just stick fairly close to the post until Parmelee gets back, in July, I think we will have the stuff to beat them all down the stretch," said Terry.

"Rabbit" Comfortable After Leg Operation

Rochester, N. Y., May 18 (AP)—Walter J. "Rabbit" Maranville, game little second baseman of the Boston Braves, was reported "resting comfortably" today after an operation to facilitate knitting of an imperfectly healed broken bone in his left leg.

With his leg in a cast for the second time, he waited with a cheerful smile to learn whether he will be able to resume his 21 year career as a major league ball player.

An X-ray will be taken in about two weeks to see how the bone is knitting. The leg was broken when Maranville slid to home plate during a training camp game with the Yankees.

Dr. Ralph Fitch performed the operation yesterday at the General Hospital in an attempt to bring the slightly parted break together.

President Emil Fuchs told Maranville not to worry and to join the team when he was able. It is virtually certain that the "rabbit" will be out the rest of the season.

Wiltwyck Golf Club Will Open With Special Matches May 27

The Wiltwyck Golf Club course on Hurley avenue, built by a number of public spirited citizens of Kingston through stock subscriptions because they believed that Kingston should have a public golf course, will be ready for play this spring. Those who have backed the plan from its beginning hope that the public of Kingston and vicinity will accept and support the course so that improvements may be made and ultimately Kingston may have an 18-hole course second to none in this vicinity. The annual lay of the tract of land makes for an ideal course with practically every desired type of hazard. The course will be officially opened on Sunday, May 27, when it will be open from 10:30 o'clock there will be a match playing by prominent golfers including Mrs. Clarence Voss of Phenicia, runner-up in the North Eastern New York Women's Championship match. Mrs. Voss will meet Mrs. Morris, Albany County Club champion. This match should be of particular interest to local people and especially the women folks who will have an opportunity at that time to witness one of the best women golfers of this section meet on the Wiltwyck course.

At the time, Wiltwyck Golf Club will meet Tom Creavy, Albany Country Club pro and 1931 P. G. A. champion. T. C. Goodman, under whose direction the course has been constructed, expects a large turnout of Kingstonians on the opening day for it is not frequent that the public has an opportunity to witness a match of the calibre of Tom Creavy in action. The public is invited to witness these matches and tickets are on sale for the event.

In order that there may be ample parking space for all cars Mr. Goodman had graded on a large plot of ground along Hurley avenue near the Club House site and will construct a parking grounds. Three carriages of cinders will be spread to make the park suitable for cars and a man will be in charge of parking on May 27, the opening day.

An inspection of the course made Thursday discloses that the first nine holes have been completed and are in playable condition. Mr. Goodman had done a good job and while every golfer knows that a course cannot be made into a seasoned course the first year, the Wiltwyck course is in unusually good condition for a first year course. Next year the course should be in prime condition.

The greens are in good condition and the fairways have been mowed and present a very attractive appearance. While last winter was a severe one on lawns and grass the seeding on the Wiltwyck course came through in good condition and Mr. Goodman expects that when the course is open for play all of the greens will be in condition.

Thus far but nine holes have been constructed but on the westerly side of the property is room for nine additional holes which will be constructed as soon as possible, probably in the next year or two. The present course has a yardage of about 3,200 and is played over a rolling country with several long holes and two water hazards. The construction of the second nine will in no way interfere with the present nine holes already constructed and in laying out the course Mr. Goodman has planned the course so that none of the second portion will cross the part now completed. In this planning the 18 holes it will be possible ultimately to play the course in two sections if desired without players interfering with each other. The present nine holes extend from the club house on Hurley avenue down the valley on the Hurley avenue side of the hill and up the hill over the water hazard to Lucas avenue and then back over a water hazard and through a valley in the woods and back to the club house.

Goodman Co-Favorite With Jack McLean

Prestrick, Scotland, May 18 (AP)—By force of numbers as well as by individual skill, America's Simon-pures hope to shake the pin that trails invading players in the British amateur golf championship here next week.

Although only two native Americans, Jess Sweetser and Bobby Jones, ever have won the title, the current United States challenge, consisting of all nine members of the victorious Walker Cup team, as well as Jesse Gullford, one-time Boston "slingshot," is by no means taken lightly by British critics.

Bookmakers have installed Johnny Goodman, American open champion, as co-favorite with the Scot, Jack McLean, for the title won a year ago by 56-year-old Michael Scott. Not far behind them in the list of odds are the other eight Walker Cup stars—George Dunlop, who was eliminated by Scott in the semifinals last year at St. Andrews; Gus Moreland, Jack Westland, Francis Quimist, Max Marston, Chandler Egan, Johnny Fischer and Lawson Little.

The biggest obstacle in the path to an American victory lies in the draw. Every Walker Cup player except Goodman is in one half of the draw.

WRESTLING LAST NIGHT.

(By The Associated Press.)

Camden, N. J.—Abe Coleman, 205, Chicago, defeated Dick Raines, 223, Texas, straight falls.

Toronto, Ont.—Jim Browning, 236, Verona, Mo., defeated Gino Garibaldi, 215, Italy, two falls to one.

Washington, D. C.—Jim McMillen, 220, Chicago, defeated Rudy Dusek, 215, Omaha, 35-00 (Dusek hurt).

Milwaukee—Jim London, 202, St. Louis, threw Joe Malczewicz, 200, Utica, N. Y., 47-53.

FRENCH DAVIS CUP ACES WIN ROUND OVER AUSTRIA.

Paris, May 18 (AP)—France's tennis forces, starting along the rocky road they hope will lead to recovery of the Davis Cup, today began a first round series of European zone play against Austria with a victory.

Christian Bousset, second ranking French star, defeated the No. 1 of Austria, Franz Matejka, 6-1, 6-1, 6-4.

France held the cup from 1927 until last year when it was won by England.

DIERS ALL STARS OUTPOINT THE CADDY NINE BY 10-0

Thursday evening at the high school baseball diamond the Caddy nine bowed to the Diers All Stars, 6-10. Gadd of the losers featured for his team banging out a homer. Zoller did the best stick work for the All Stars with two singles and a double out of three times up.

Life Is Chain of Processes
Enough is known about life and growth for science to realize that it is the set result of a chain of processes following one another. It might be reasonable to suppose, declares a scientist in the New York Herald Tribune, that some of these processes in the chain are slowed down greatly by the presence of heavy hydrogen. As heavy hydrogen replaces the ordinary kind, growth is practically inhibited. The inhibition of a few essential steps in the chain of events that cause growth, would stop all the processes that succeed them in the growth sequence.

GLANCING AT SPORTS

By Joe Kelly

Busy derelicts

Manager G. Walker announces three games for the Hercules baseball team, one of the busiest clubs hereabouts.

Sunday the Powdermen cross bats with the North Rondout Social Club at Port Ewen, 3 p. m.

Sunday, May 27, the Kaslich A. C. will be at Port Ewen to oppose them at 2 o'clock.

Memorial Day the Huron Indians of Stone Ridge will return to Port Ewen at 2 p. m. to avenge a recent defeat at the hands of the Dynamiters. The first contest between these two hard fighting clubs went 14 innings.

This Sunday the Hercules will send either Mammello or Best to the mound against the North Rondouters with Ryder catching. The visitors are expected to have Celuch for their hurler.

Only One Forfeit

There was only one forfeit in the Kingston League, as a glance at last night's scores will show, proving that bowlers of Kingston have an interest in the sport, at least for the time, regardless of what many predicted.

Some voiced the opinion that duckpins at Emerick's would not go, but last night's opening matches on the schedule, brought out all the teams but the Mules and some nice scores resulted. Gil Kelder did the individual featuring.

John Keresman, president of the City League, is one of the bowlers endeavoring to stimulate a lot of interest in duckpins to keep the keglers in shape over the summer period and to help out proprietors of bowling alleys, who otherwise would experience a slump in business.

At Katz, captain of the Porcupines, is one of the liveliest directors in the league. He is against this forfeit business and sees to it that all of his men are present. At gives 'em a ring on the 'phone early in the morning, reminding that "we play tonight; be at Emerick's on time!"

Lookin' 'Em Over.

Fight fans may be seen looking over the American Legion boxing matches for Tuesday night, May 22, as they pause for a spell in restaurants and beer gardens where Matchmaker Doc Studer has his bills posted advertising the show.

As the patrons of punch scan the posters they seem to nod satisfaction at the array of pitings. They seem especially attracted to the feature between Eddie Karolak of Albany and Lou Foster, short hard puncher from Pennsylvania. Karolak stopped Big Bill Freeman in his appearance here about a month ago and Foster cuffed Chester Matan, Primo Carnera's sparring partner, all around the ring for 19 rounds, winning by a mile.

Poster, a "horning in" fighter, who never lets up punching, and Karolak, a hard hitter who mixed it readily with Freeman, are expected to make the feathers fly when they get in there together.

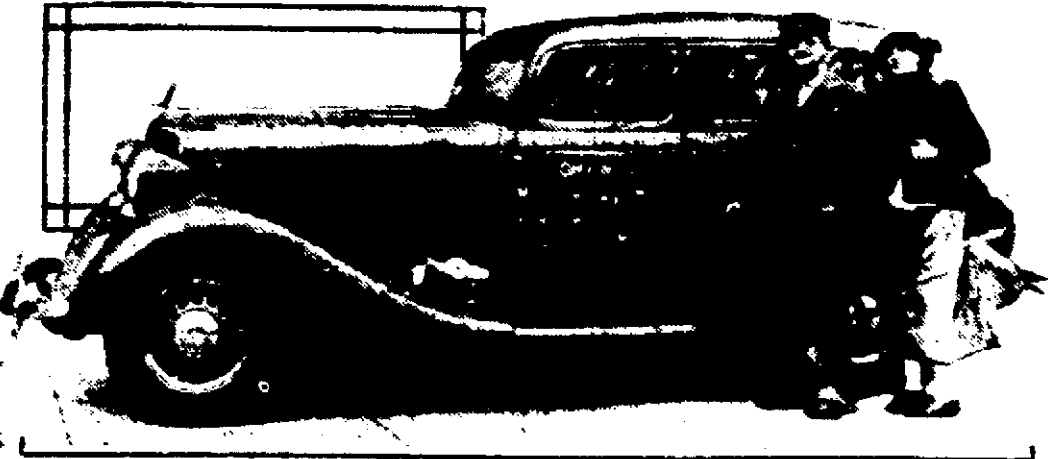

Wiltwyck Opens May 27.

May 27, states a story elsewhere in The Freeman, is the opening date for the Wiltwyck Golf course and it is hoped from that time on there will be a busy time at the links, which are for the public. As an attraction for the inaugural Mrs. Clarence Voss of Phenicia has been procured to play a feminine expert from Albany. Mrs. Voss is a champion, having won a title in the east last season and is expected to show some real form.

Sources of Mineral Oils

The sources of mineral oils form a class somewhat by themselves, and include petroleum and oils distilled from peat, shale, etc. They are generally thought to have been formed by the decomposition of animal and vegetable remains, although petroleum is regarded by certain writers of purely mineral origin.

Si and Mary In Studebaker Parade

Si and Mary Stebbins, renowned comedy team are in Kingston today with the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer All American tour, appearing for the Studebaker agency. The old honeymooners, as these two travelers are known took part in a parade at noon, starting from the A. C. Studebaker garage at 45 Hurley avenue, local home of Studebaker. They shouted greetings as they rode through the streets in their car, attracting as much attention in their funny makeup as they did when they were the featured comics with the Barnum circus and other shows. Si is a spry old fellow despite his 48 years and does his own driving. He and Mary were here in 1925 when they were billed as "on their honeymoon."

"Mamma's Baby Boy" To Be Given Tonight

Tonight at 8:15 the comedy, "Mamma's Baby Boy," will be presented by the Christadelphian Society, the young people's organization of the church. New scenery, unique lighting and a well-rehearsed cast will serve to make this one of the best of plays given in the Ramsey Hall in some time. Dr. Goodrich Gates has coached the players. In leading roles are Reuben Tongue, as a scheming widow, Allan MacCollam, as "Mamma's Baby Boy," Donald Clark, as the wise old widower, and Irene Lake, as a charming daughter of sentimental intentions toward "Mamma's Baby Boy." Others in the cast are Farnsworth Hendricks, Shirley Terwilliger, Allan Boeker, Marjorie Clubb, Alberta Davis, Evelyn Hubbs and Fred Carpenter. Tickets will be on sale at the doors, which will open at 7:30. Refreshments will be sold after the play.

FATHER COUGHLIN TAKES COURSE AT HILL BROWN'S

Garrison, N. Y., May 18 (AP)—The Rev. Fr. Charles J. Coughlin of Detroit, internationally known as the "radio priest," is "tearing up" and taking the prescribed course of exercises at "Bill Brown's place" here.

The clergyman has been at Brown's Place about a week. The length of his stay will depend upon how soon he can obtain the desired rest. Inquiries today developed that Fr. Coughlin was out taking, but no information was given concerning the regimen of exercise to which he is subjected.

Man's First Flight Under His Own Power

FOR the first time in history a man has succeeded in flying under his own power. Erich Kupper of Berlin is here seen performing the feat, followed by a crowd of friends. He flew into the air in a small, open-cockpit aircraft, causing the two engines which also served as wings, to his feet was a ski landing gear, and attached to his hip was a "tail skid."

Schipperke, One-Master Dog and Proud of Honor

Nautically speaking, the "skipper" is the captain of the ship. For more than a century, these words have fallen upon the small, erect, triangular ears of the 12-pound, jet-black tailless dog that watched over the cargo and killed the rats on the canal barges plying their way through Belgium and Holland, according to a writer in the Los Angeles Times.

Taking his title "Schipperke" (which is Flemish for "Little Skipper") seriously, he seems to have inherited its full significance. Tolerant of other members of his household, he instinctively assumes the ownership of but one master, whose protection he deems a special duty, watching over him with an air of guardianship.

His disposition, while most affectionate, is tinged with jealousy, particularly of other animals. An excellent and faithful watchdog, he does not readily make friends with strangers. Very active and always on the alert, he is very courageous in the defense of objects left in his charge. He is particularly gentle with children.

Characteristic is his cat-like inquisitiveness and lively interest in everything that goes on about him. At the end of a moderately long, fine but not weak, muzzle, is a black nose that is poked into everything. Each strange object or slightest noise that arouses his interest must be thoroughly investigated for its cause. Moving about with the agility of a cat, he seldom makes a false move. Sure-footed, he never upsets objects, and when he hops, he has a curious way of catching up his hind legs. His excitement is expressed by sharp barks (dubbed in Belgium, the "burglar alarm"), and a bristling mane.

Use of Arch Dates Back to Days of the Romans

No one knows who invented or first built an arch, but according to Sir John Gardner Wilkinson, the Egyptians and Assyrians were acquainted with the principles of the arch and used it in their buildings. The Greeks also must have had a knowledge of it, although it does not occur in any of their surviving structures, observes a writer in the Washington Star.

The Romans probably derived their acquaintance with it from the Etruscans, and it is to the former that the nations of modern Europe are indebted for the traditions of arch construction.

It is said that the oldest arch in the world probably is that in the Cloaca Maxima at Rome, built about 600 B. C. But Chinese bridges of great antiquity were built with arches, some of them of great beauty.

Triumphal arches were a prominent feature of Roman architecture. Of the type are the arch of Titus, the arch of Constantine, the arch of Septimius Severus, and the arch of Trajan, not to mention many of lesser note scattered over France, Spain, Austria and every part of Italy.

Early Prima Donna

According to John Tasker Howard's book, "Our American Music," there had been nothing in American history to compare with the furor that Jenny Lind created in the 1850s. Her first concert was given at Castle Garden, New York city, on September 11, 1850. There were other famous singers, Maria Malabran, daughter of the Manuel Garcia who gave New York its first taste of Italian opera, had been in this country with her father in 1825 and had stayed two years. Henriette Sontag had made a great success in opera and a sensation in concert. She was in America when Jenny Lind was here, and she went to Mexico City in 1854, where she died of cholera. Earlier even than these famous singers, Mrs. Oldmixon and Miss Broadhurst were famous on the concert stage in the United States as early as 1785.

Last Day For Home Bureau Exhibit

Over 100 visitors from city and county saw the Home Bureau exhibit Thursday. However, today the numbers are expected to run well over that figure as many will be in from over the county attending the annual program planning meeting of the Home Bureau. Today is the last day the exhibit will be open to the public, as the exhibit will be taken down at 4 p. m. today.

Thursday afternoon two lectures were featured. Miss Margaret Morrill, of the State College of Home Economics, gave a short talk on "Modern Trends in Clothing." Following her talk Mr. Davis, of Valentin Burkevin, gave a general discussion on home ground planning. Mr. Davis gave time for questions and helped those present with personal problems. About 30 were present to hear Mr. Davis and appreciated the opportunity to ask questions and get advice on planning.

These talks were the last in a series planned in connection with the Home Bureau exhibit. Landscaping talks were given three afternoons this week. They were arranged by the county landscaping committee of which Mrs. William Warren of Hurley is chairman. Other members of the committee are Mrs. Willard Jenkins, New Paltz; Miss Catherine Hasbrouck, Stone Ridge; Miss Lulu Clarke, Milton; Mrs. Frank Zelle, Stone Ridge; and Mrs. S. J. Larned, Flatbush. The exhibit of the Home Bureau this year has been the most extensive ever undertaken in the county and shows the work in some of the many departments of work the organization is carrying on in the county. It is estimated that at least 500 people will have seen the exhibit by 4 o'clock this afternoon.

Vitamins Always There; Ever Played Their Part

The idea that vitamins exist alone in the various foods and that a sufficient variety must be fed if all are to be included in the ration is one that is likely to be obtained from the literature discussing them. The emphasis placed upon a certain food's content of some particular vitamin may lead to the conclusion that no other vitamin can be found in that food. As a matter of fact, declares a correspondent in the Rural New-Yorker, the known vitamins are widely distributed in practically all foods, any one of these containing several. Certain foods, however, are richer in a designated vitamin than others and, if that vitamin is particularly wanted, the food containing it is given preference over other foods holding less.

As with all discoveries, that of the role played by vitamins in nutrition has led to an emphasis upon their value that has obscured other things of equal importance. One cannot live upon vitamins alone, and no one or several vitamins can accomplish all things in nutrition. Food is still food, and the fact that certain nutritive principles contained in it have been discovered does not alter the fact that these principles were there before they became known as now.

Litvinoff Arrives In Geneva to Plead The Soviet Viewpoint

Sensation Created by Arrival of Russian Head of Foreign Affairs—Rusks Alarmed Over Arms Problem.

Geneva, May 18 (AP).—Maxim Litvinoff, Russian commissar for foreign affairs, arrived here unexpectedly today to consult with League of Nations leaders on the question of disarmament and possibly the Soviet union's entry into the league.

The arrival of the Russian diplomat created a sensation in league circles deeply discouraged over the apparent impasse in moves toward an accord on arms.

It was reported that Russia is alarmed over the recurrent rumors that the world disarmament conference will be allowed to collapse.

Well-informed circles said the Russian envoy would seek an international pact of non-aggression as proposed by President Roosevelt and also, in an attempt to keep the disarmament conference alive, would urge concentration on the elaboration of a pact of mutual assistance and security to fortify the organization of peace.

Such a pact, it was said, would attempt to define aggressor nations. League circles believed he would refuse to discuss Russia's entry into the League of Nations, regarding the Soviet as encouraged to this end by the British and French attitude.

Litvinoff himself was silent, but the present situation in the Far East caused his visit to be regarded as of the highest importance.

Quite apart from the matter of the league and world peace was a rumor that the Russian diplomat might go to Savoie, France, for a conference with Leon Trotsky, former Soviet leader now in exile, in an effort to effect a reconciliation between the exile and Joseph Stalin, present leader of Russia.

Cherry Cobbler

You can use this recipe for any fruit. It will be just as delicious:

1 cup flour
2 1/2 teaspoons baking powder
1/4 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons shortening
3/4 to 1 cup milk
2 cups drained, unswartened cherries
1 cup sugar

Mix dry ingredients. Work in the shortening. Add milk to make a dough soft enough to stir. Put cherries and sugar in a baking dish 8 to 9 inches in diameter and spread the dough over them. Make several cuts in the center to allow the steam to escape. Bake 45 minutes and serve hot with sugar and cream.

This is one of a series of recipes prepared for this paper by the Consumers Information Service of the New York State Department of Agriculture and Markets. Watch for others.
